Meet Dr. Murray

We are pleased to welcome Drew Murray, MD, to the PeaceHealth St. Joseph Cancer Center team of providers. Dr. Murray's practice areas include general oncology and hematology. He joins us with experience in an academic setting and involvement in clinical trials across all cancer types. "I value all opportunities for clinical trial involvement," he shared.

Dr. Murray's specific interests extend to bladder, renal, prostate, lung, head and neck, melanoma, colon, liver and breast cancers and malignant hematology. In addition to his work on clinical trials, Dr. Murray has researched socioeconomic disparities in cancer populations and associated outcomes.

Bellingham is the perfect place for Dr. Murray to pursue his hobbies of hiking, skiing, snowboarding and ocean-going. When he is not outside adventuring, you may find him practicing his woodworking. He and his significant other, Chelsea, share a dog, Biggs.
